

We're going ABOVE & BEYOND

of children's friend

At Children’s Friend, it is not enough to maintain our already high standards of excellence and dedication. It is not enough to keep caring for the children we care for. At Children’s Friend, we want to go above and beyond.

We’re always aware that for every child we help, there is another in need. As good as our programs and services are, we’re always finding ways to make them better.

We ask a lot from you, and we know it. In tough economic times like these, you might ask yourself why you should continue to give. The answer is simple; every dime you give to Children’s Friend goes directly to our programs, supporting Rhode Island’s youngest and most vulnerable children.

Please give to Children’s Friend, and go above and beyond with us.
